Minimum Requirements

- Master's degree in social work, counseling or psychology
- Status with the California BBS as an ASW, AMFT or LPCC
- Some experience working with adolescents and/or young adults
- Excellent communication skills
- Embracing and respectful of diversity in all its forms

Salary: $45-$60K annual salary depending on experience and training

Benefits: Health, dental, vision (or cash equivalent)
Life insurance, flex spending, 401K, training stipend, cell phone allowance

Time Off: Six weeks per year (20 days flexible time off, 10 days federal holidays)
Catastrophic sick bank, bereavement leave

Hours: Full-time, flexible schedule, but must include some afternoon, evening or weekend hours

EMERGE Center for Social and Emotional Learning was founded in 2017 to provide a broad array of social, emotional and psychological services with a primary focus on adolescents and young adults. EMERGE seeks to better engage young people in their own growth process by offering innovative programs and a diverse group of professionals who are skilled and passionate about working with youth.

Our theoretical orientation is integrative, collaborative, relational and youth-focused. Our staff have specialized training in the needs of adolescents, young adults and family systems. Our vision is a world where young people are valued and afforded the resources they need to grow into healthy, strong and happy adults.

The years between 12-25 are a period of tremendous growth, angst, excitement and opportunity, where the challenge to emerge is never greater. Our goal is to facilitate that process.

APPLY TO EMERGE IF YOU:

- Want to work with mission-driven colleagues who believe in the power of young people
- Strive for a high level of clinical excellence and innovation
- Are committed to social justice, anti-racism and community development
- Enjoy learning with others and working creatively and collaboratively
- Are in a continual process of personal growth and transformation
